MAIN STREET REPORT – JULY 2024 DATA

Red, White, & Moo Milk Fest July 4th

The Red, White, and Moo Milk Fest and Parade was held on Thursday, July 4th. More than 30 entries participated in the parade and hundreds of community members attended the festival held at the Court House. Activities included food trucks, a petting zoo, face painting, live dairy milking demonstration, and more. The annual Independence Day parade and festival is held in partnership with local dairy families. We thank Grand View Dairy, Fox Dairy, Legacy Farms, Dairy Fountain and Descanso Dairy as well as the Red, White, and Moo Committee for their participation and involvement.

Downtown Plainview July 2nd Saturday

July 2nd Saturday (July 13th) was full of Christmas in July festivities and a Bash on Ash street. Ash Street businesses collaborated to host bounce houses, food trucks, and several small business vendors. The festivities were joined by City of Plainview Animal Management also did free microchips for pets where they quickly ran out of supplies due to the overwhelming attendance and support.

Fair Theater

The Fair Theater had two events in July – one being a memorial service with 35 attendees, and another was a private movie birthday party with 25 attendees.

Awards for the Summer Reading Program Reading Challenge was held on Saturday, July 27th, which officially closed out the Summer Reading Program for 2024. Once again, our overall winner was Sophia Moore who clocked in at 14,250 minutes. Sophia is in Junior High and will be in 8th grade in the fall.

Reclassification continues. This month we concentrated on children's collections and finished reclassifying all the juvenile collections. We are currently in the middle of relabeling those books. The Easy Fiction collection is nearing completion with changes in the online catalog. Once finished with the fiction we will begin work on the Easy nonfiction collection, followed by the biography section. We will also be making sure other sub-collections in the Easy section have been tweaked where necessary. Now that we are again fully staffed, we expect to resume our withdrawals and reclassifications in the adult nonfiction collection.

Staci Green was hired in July and completes the process of hiring new staff. She joins our other new staff member, Jessica Ogden, along with Regina Lucio and Donna Waugh.

There are no major events during the month of August, but we will be preparing for several programs and events in September. This will include having tables at the "back to school" nights at the three elementary schools on Thursday, September 5th; resuming the Preschool Story Time on Wednesday, September 11th; hosting the initial "First Thursday" on Thursday, September 12th; and presenting Reagan Doyle and Curious George at the Fair Theatre on Saturday, September 14th at 1:00 PM.
