

NOTICE TO UTILITY CUSTOMERS

Pursuant to House Bill 859, which became effective September 1, 1993, the City of Plainview may not disclose an individual's address, phone number or social security number if the customer requests that the City of Plainview keep the information confidential. The customer may rescind the request for confidentiality at any time by providing the city with written permission to disclose this personal information. There will be no charge for this service.

Besides federal and state agencies and other utilities, customer names and addresses are regularly provided to: (1) Local churches; (2) Plainview Chamber of Commerce; (3) Area-wide telephone directory; and (4) other persons and groups as requested.
